TERMS OF ADVERTISING.

Vol. 5.

Office in National Bank building.

WM. D. FRAZEE,

WINCHESTER, IND.

(Successor to Judge Brown.)

L. J. MONKS,

ATTORNEY AT LAW.

Winchester, Indiana,

all kinds of Real Estate, on the most favor-

Collecting and Securing of all kinds of Claims. Office up stairs .a Jail Building.

SET EMEDIAS IS. 180

W. A. BONHAM,

Military Claim Agent,

HARTFORD CITY,

REAL ESTATE AGENCY.

CHENEY & WATSON,

ATTORNEYS AT LAW.

WINCHESTER, IND.

Pensions, Bounties and Arrears of Par

I pon the most favorable terms. Strict at-ention given to collection and security of

M. B. MILLER,

WINCHESTER, IND.

lection of Claims.

South-east Corner of Public Square,

WINCHESTER, IND.

to make it a first-class Hotel. He invites

J. S. WAY,

ORNAMENTAL PAINTER.

Winchester, April 26, 1866. n43

George McAdams,

Dealer in

Snor West Side of Public Square,

DR. FARNSWORTH'S

FOR THE TREATMENT OF

and Illinois sts.,

GONDRRHEA, GLEET, STRICTURE,

Weakness.

SYPHILIS,

practiced eye can detect, and in which the skillthe various Female Diseases and Complaints, so

Send for Dr. Farnsworth's Treatle on Venereal senses, a new work just issued, a menitor and Medicines compounded and furnished at this Dispensury. Those living at a distance can con sult by letter, and have their medicine sent by express. All communications strictly confiden-

DR. FARNSWORTH.

Box 1144. Indianapolis, Ind.

Office boarst 7 A. M. to 9 P. M.; Sunday * , 8 A.

Extra Bounty! Extra Pension! Extra Pay!

Blanks and instructions sent by mail rars or late Agent U.S. Sanitary Commission, ast paid, on receipt of 25 cents.

ful physician only can effect a permanent cure.

INDIANAPOLIS, IND.,

and graining on reasonable terms.

STOVES AND TIN

Are also prepared to procure Claims. Office in Jail building.

Office in Jail Building.

the patronage of all.

OHN J. CHENEY,

Blackford County, Indiana.

ESTATE AGENCY.

LEGAL AND TRANSIENT ADVERTISING. One Dollar per Square for Ferst Insertion, and Tweaty-Five Cents per Square for each subsequent insertion. VEARLY ADVERTISING.

Que Half Column ...... 36 00

Regular Notices, Seventy Five Cents per Week; Transient, Ten Cents per Ling,

RATEROAD TIME TABLES.

BELLEFONTAINE RAILROAD TRAINS PASS WINCHESTER -- GOING WEST

MAIL AL STRESS AL STATE STATE AND ST MAIL AL TONE STATE TO THE TONE A. M. WESTERN EXPRESS at .... 9.57 P. M.

TRAINS PASS VARMIAN DE-GOING WEST. WESTERN EXPRESS..... 5:35 A. M. Going EAST. N. Y. EXPRESS ... ..... 940 P. M

Arrival and Departure of Trains at Union City, Ohio and Indiana State

BELLEFONTAINE LINE -GOING EAST. Arrive. Depart. Sapress Mail. .... 8 10 a. M. 8 45 a. M. Night Express ...... 11 30 p. M. 11 50 p. M. Accommodation . . . 9 00 F. M. COLUMBUS RAILROAD.

Accommodation ... 6 35 r. M ... . 7 30 A. M. DAYTON & UNION RAILROAD. Arrive. Depart. Express ..... 5 10 P. M. 8 10 A. M

Busmess Directory.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK, OF WINCHESTER, IND.,

North-east corner of Washington and Meridian streets. Banking Hours 9 A. M. to 4 P. M. OFFICERS. THOS. WARD, Pres't. WM. M. LOCKE, Cashier.

THE FIRST

National Bank

OF UNION CITY, INDIANA, No. 6 Columbia Street.

Loans Money, Buys and Sells Exchange, procuring Gold and Silver; Deals in Government PENSIONS, BOUNTIES AND ARREARS OF PAY. Bonds. Pays Interest on Deposits by agree-ment, Discounts Notes and attends promptly Banking Honre-S A. M. to 4 P. M. E. STARBUCK. President.

R. S. FISHER, Cashier.

GEO. W. BRUCE, M. D., Physician and Surgeon. Winchester, Indiana,

l'enters his professional services to the estizens of Winchester and vicinity. FEICE-Athis Residence, corner of Main and South streets-the former residence of Dr. Ferguson,

S. M. McCLURE, M. D., PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON.

Tenders his services to the citizens of WINCHESTER

And vicinity. He gives especial attention to Diseases of Females, and all CHRONIC DISEASES.

Also, those of the EYE AND EAR Receive particular attention

Office --- South side of Public Square. In Dr. Wilmore's Dental office, T Residence on Franklin street, near Moorman War's, opposite E. Edger's residence.

J. W. WILMORE,

DENTIS WINCHESTER, IND. OFFICE South side of Public Square, up and specessful practice, of several years, in the north east part of Winchester. Office hours from 8 to 12 A. M. and from 1 to 4 P. M.

tion, of however long standing, but can now be cured, such being the power of the new remedies and discoveries over this dreadful scourge. A. J. ROSS. DENTIST.

MERCHANT TAILOR West of the Public Square, Wincester. CLOTHS. CASSIMERES AND VESTINGS. Always on hand and made to order in the

WARD & SWAIN. REAL ESTATE, FIRE, LIFE, AND ACCIDENTAL

INSURANCE ACENTS. OFFICE IN THE LOCK BUILDING Winchester, Indiana.

LENKERSDORFER & WESP. MANUFACTURERS or FURNITURE styles East of Public Square, Winchester |

NDOLPHJOT

WINCHESTER, INDIANA, THURSDAY, DECEMBER 13, 1866.

T. M. BROWNE, LYNN. ATTORNEY AT LAW, WINCHESTER, IND.

ATTORNEY AT LAW

placing the drum on the stove and namely, physicans,- able terms. He will also attend to the and show what every anti-church man the patient's life. reason why he should complain. The cal aid in time. again. The society, though poor, and the physician.

call themselves "outsiders." They the masses of the people are enlightwere not illiberal on this occasion, but ened on the laws that govern their acted, as they believed, upon princi- health, the more will the efforts and ATTORNEY AT LAW, ples of equity to all. All the damages labors of the true physician be apprethat have happened the church are the ciated. We will briefly notice some of result of its being used as a public the advantages which are derived from school-house, town hall for public a knowledge of, and obedience to, speaking, railroad meetings, &c. The physiological laws. I am an authorized Government Claim drum purchased last season was de-

FRANKLIN HOUSE, mainly used, a chance to repair its them to do, or know, they have done so. PETER REINHEIMER, Proprietor.

purchased and relitted by the Proprietor, chance to show our liberality.

Believing that errors in printed pub- willing. . William lications of any kind to be intolerable, pable blunders which are committed, in order to bring them to the notice of habit of reading understandingly.

PRIVATE DISEASES, that are on the ice. The rules of gram-as Mr. Willson has it. 109, is the sentence, "further off is shoulders at the same time? our most popular Surgeons, I do not hesitate to express my candid conviction that, with a just and fair trial, there is no case of Venereal Affec-

In his Fifth Reader, (old series,) page 303, is the sentenc, "We expected to have seen a mountain with a broa base, &c." To say "we expected to have seen," is to use the second past tense indicative mode instead of the present tense infinitive mode. We Ail classes of Private Diseases treated, in the can not expect, intend, wish, hope, &c., to have seen or have done any thing McGuffev, in revising his series, corrected many of the errors, but not all; thus rendering himself the more in-

In the Sixth Reader, in the concluding lesson of "The Twins," page 292, is the sentence, "Edward, the elder, complained." Whoever heard of the elder of twins? If McGuffy's good sense had been used to leave out the word "elder," the author would not SOLDIERS' AGENCY. have been rendered so ludicrous.

In the Fifth Reader, page 156, is the Forthe Journal.

Hygienic Physiology. Physiology, at the present day, includes the science treating of the functions of animals and vegetables; or, in other words, it is "The scienc of Life."

is due." We desire they should enjoy It has been argued by some, that the the praise of their doings. Our ac- public is not benefitted by articles and Will attend to all business intrusted to count, for any thing your correspond- publications on the laws of health, and ent has said, we believe stands unim- I must say that these objections frepugned. The church authorities made quently eminate from those who should the purchase and did the menial part, feel most interested in this matter, making the other repairs; and we had a It very frequently occurs at the presthat thought it necessary to mention ent time that persons, and more es the fact that the community generally pecially children, are taken sick, and before the friends or parents are aware Your correspondent is disposed to of it, are dangerously ill. A physician Will attend to Buving, Selling and Leasing draw the line and balance accounts, is at length called, but to late to save will tell us that the worldly class are Now, can not you see it would have more liberal than professing Christians. been better for friend and physician, It may be so; and some may remain if all had been in possession of that out of the church because its members knowledge of the laws of health by are not faultless men; yet, in this in- which they could have determined the .ITTOR.VEY .IT L.IW, stance, we think there can be no just degree of disability, and sought medi-

same purchase was made last winter, Again, if a physician is compelled to and the church put in good repair, practice among those who have no with the express understanding that knowledge of the laws which govern the property was to be cared for, and their being, he is never safe. In one if destroyed through careless neglect, case, his efforts to save his patient's that those who had contributed liber- life may be more than appreciated, ally on that occasion would not do so while in another instance, he may do tributed on the present instance, as yet be censured for his apparent want shown by his figures, is only $6 55; of success. Taking this into considerwhereas, one member alone gave $10 ation, we occupy the ground the more when called on last fall, with a request | we disseminate a knowlee of the laws that if more was needed to call on him of heatlh, the better it is for the people we believe equally so with those who this important subject, for the more

A GOOD NATURAL DEVELOPMENT. In the lower order of animals the Creator has supplied our reason by in-With those facts before them, church stinct. This is the criterian by which members held back to give the general they are governed. It is their infalli-

The desire for action is instinctive, HOUSE, SIGN, incations of any kind to be intolerable, The desire for action is instinctive, and in school books almost criminal, I but the nature of the action is governdesign noticing some of the most pal- ed by the will. To illustrate—the appetite is instinctive, but its gratification is governed by volition.

sentence "They will fall on the ice and family, from debased company, un- in upon the city. hurt them," occurs. Whom does he healthy habits, bad moral influences, mean will get hurt? Evidently those to healthler climes, loftler moral influ- about 625 years before Christ the So long as the public submit to these the reverse. Where these conditions

For proof of this, we need only refer to certain districts in the old coun-Does the man carry the gun on both tries, and compare that class that has With lived in ignorance and immorality from equal propriety we might say, has a time almost immemorial, with those boot on his fe t. I would suggest shoul- that have been elevated by moral culture, made strong by physical devel-McGuffey's books are by no means opment, and purified by christian in-health, or physiological laws.

[TO BE CONTINUED.]

"Bos, that's a fine horse you hav

there; how much is he worth?" "Three hundred and fifty dollars. "Not so much as that." "Yes, every cent of it, and anothe fifty on top of it."

"Are you sure?" "Yes. I'll swear to it." "All right."

verse, where we are told of the founda- Rooms in New York.

told that Sennacherib, King of Assyria, mains of ancient Nineveh!

have been very great; about 600,000,

the literary class, that they may search | The capacity for good natural de- can all read in the last chapter of dry goods dealers have marked down for similar ones, thus cultivating a velopment is inherent, but the spoil- Jonah. But alas! they returned to prices and are giving consumers the ing of perfection of character is depen- their evil ways again; and the next benefit of the decline; but merchant In Willson's Third Reader, page 74, dent on our will, moral and physical prophet, Nahum, foretold their de- tailors are charging very nearly war 82 the word "folks" is used. Either The claims made by some to respect destroyed by water and partly by fire. orbitant prices for bonnets which have of the words is correct, but for tablity, nobility, and superiority to The eighth verse of the second chapter scarcely enough material in them to will remain at home until the question Winchester. - . Indiana. the sake of harmony, Mr. Will- blood, are merely the results of moral, of Nahum says: "Nineveh is of old light a cigar. like a pool of water." This is supposed In boarding houses and hotels old and not perplex the learner with both. Instances are continually occurring to be a reference to the moats and prices are maintained; and in restau-Willson's First Reader, page 39, the of the removal of one member of a dams by which the water could be let rants ten cents per cup is charged for

About the year 1841 some gentlemen there which prove it certainly to be the "grave" of Nineveh. The search temples and paluces covered with sculpture and with inscriptions which have been parfly deciphered and found to be records of the city, which in the Bible. These inscriptions are written in characters having the shape the arrow-headed or cuniform writing. ne doubt many of you would think it tion of Nineveh, there is a little doubt From what has been discovered, it about the translation. On the margin appears that the buildings were all The Man who wen't Pay the Printer. you will see it reads thus: "He (that very much alike. They were built May he never be permitted to kise a is Nimrod, spoken of in the ninth upon platforms made of sun-dried handsome woman. builded Nineveh," &c. Some suppose only the plan of the ground-floor can nut burr for an eyestone. shur, who was a son of Shem, and sists of halls, chambers and gallaries fire, and his fishing lines break. the Lord." brick, against which are placed ala- night. Nineveh it is not mentioned again side, these are carved and ornamented. despotic than the Dey of Algiers.

dwelt there, and how he was slain My young friends, there are many ders. Then Nineveh is not spoken of again cities and empires and inventions, and May the famine-stricken ghost of an till the time of the prophet Jonah, who the beautiful works of men-yet let us editor's baby haunt his slumbers. was sent by God to warn the people not eling to them too proudly, nor | May he be bored to death with boar give us real hope or joy except the ex- of seeing his tormentors. "Nineveh was an exceeding great ceeding great love of God, and the sal-

broad, and about sixty miles in cir- The Decline in Values-The Cost of Living. The decline in values within the last six weeks has been general and sweepwas twenty miles; and it would re- ing, ranging from twenty to fifty per cent. Flour has fallen less than any round the city. It was surrounded by other article of food, owing to the fact long loved a certain big Mr. Little, walls 100 feet high, and so wide that that the wheat crop in Ohio, Indiana while Little, little thinking of Short three chariots could drive abreast upon and Kentucky was a failure, and the loved a little lass named Long. To them. These walls were fortified by flour we are consuming is mainly make a long story short, Little propos-1500 towers, each 200 feet high. In made from wheat imported from the ed to Long, and Short longed to be the fourth chapter of Jonah and elev- West. But in groceries, meats, dry even with Little's shortcomings. So enth verse we are told that there were goods and vegetables, there has been a Short, meeting Long, threatened to "more than six score thousand per- decline to the extent noticed above. marry Little before long, which caused sons" who could not "discern between Hogs have fallen forty per cent., beef Little in a short time to marry Long. their right hand and their left hand." cattle about the same, groceries twenty Query-Did tall Short love big Little By these were probably meant the per cent., and dry goods twenty to less, because Litle loved Long? public, by whom the church has been ble tutor in all that is necessary for young children of the city. Now, if twenty-five per cent. Consumers, there were 120,000 children, you will however, we imagine, do not, to any A petition numerously signed by the damages, and your correspondent says In the human species, the instinct- see that the whole population must great extent, receive the benefit of this loyal citizens of Louisiana, including reduction. Strangely enough, those a portion of the present State officials, Into this exceeding great city Jonah who stand between the wholesale deal- is now on its way to Washington for and talked about sufficiently, we hope, lectual faculties; hence the great de- entered, 860 years before Christ, and ers and consumers, act as if they had presentation to Congress. It will ask "eried and said, 'yet forty days and not heard of the decline. In our meat for the abolition of the existing state Nineven shall be overthrown." The markets beef is sold at 15@ 20c per Government, and the establishment of people were alarmed and began to re- 1b, the same that was charged when a provisional one in its stead, repre pent of their sins, and proclaimed a beef cattle were three dollars per 100 senting that unless something is done fast, and put on sackcloth, and turned | 1bs. higher than they are now. At the for their protection all Union men will from their evil course, in the hope that family groceries a poor article of coffee be driven from the State. governed by volition, or the power of God would turn away his anger and is sold at 40c, which is bought from the not cause them to perish. And God- wholesale merchants at 25c. Corever kind and merciful-saw their respondingly extertionate rates are works, and forgave their sius, and did charged for tea and sugar. Butcher's not destroy them. 100 and 1 lard is retailed at 186 20c, while, in the How the prophet was displeased at | wholesale market, the best qualities of this, and how God rebuked him, you leaf lard are a drug at 12fc. The retail struction. The city was to be partly prices; and milliners are exacting ex-

coffee and tea, just as if prices of The prophecies were all fulfilled; and groceries and provisions had not fallen. "great city" became a ruin. Her high impositions they will, no doubt, be walls and towers, her many inhabi- practiced; but the time has arrived tants, her wealth and splendor could when notice of a stout resistance should none of them save her when the hand be served. If butchers will charge of God was reached out to destroy her. fifty per cent. above a reasonable rate "This is the rejoicing city that dwelt for beef, let them keep it. If consumcarelessly, that said in heart, I am, ers would conclude that they would and there is none beside me; how is have meat at a fair price or do without she become a desolation!" (Zeph. 2: it, the price would speedlly fall. The 15.) She was so utterly destroyed by same with groceries and other articles the Saracens that, for long ages, there of provisions. These can not, of course, seemed to be no traces of even the be wholly dispensed with, but families spot where the great city had once can unite and buy at wholesale, articles stood. The ruins were so covered with for which they are paying nearly two soil that they appeared like natural prices, at retail. This, if practiced by classes who know how to do it, would soon bring the retailers to terms. - Cin.

A large boy in school was so abusive to the younger ones, that the teacher ook a vote of the school whether he should be expelled. All the small boys voted to expell him except one, who something she didn't know what, was five years old. Yet he knew very well that the bad boy would continue to abuse him. with thol synd sw . I stay?" said the teacher.

he will not learn any more about God, the leaves. and so he will be more wicked still." Do you forgive him, then?" asked

The Public Debt. The most gratifying and encourag ing feature of our national finances, is the large reduction that has been made during the past year in the public debt. We published yesterday a semiofficial statement of the aggregate debt on the first of each month since the 1st of January, 1861. It reached its maximum on the 31st of August, 1865 when, compared with the figures on the 1st of November, 1868, It stood as objects mentioned in the Bible have In this statement the gold in the In the prophecy of Jonah it is said! been found. The description of the Treasury is counted at par. If the gold "Nineveh was an exceeding great assault upon the city, given in Nahum were sold at 140; it would further recity, of three days' journey." And 3: 1-4, is all illustrated on these rained duce the debt $28,000,000, bringing the what is it now! Heaps of ruins! its walls; the horses and charlots, the total down to $2,533,510,006. But insplendor is buried, and its exceeding horsemen, the shields and spear and dependent of this premium, the next swords are all found engraved there, monthly exhibit will show a further Nineveh was the capital of the king- The shields and dresses of the warriors reduction. The true policy of the Govdom of Assyria, in Asia. This coun- are painted red in these sculptures, as ernment will be to continue to pay off try you will now find ou your maps we are told in Nahum 2: 3. Many of the principal of the debt in the decalled Kourdistan. The city was sit- these images, with other small articles preciated currency for which our bonds uated on the river Tigris; and is sup- found in the ruins, have been sent to were sold, until it shall be brought beposed to have been one of the most the British Museum in London, and low $2,000,000,000, when it will be ancient cities of the world. In the several of these ancient sculptures within controllable limits. Then the ing the currency .- Cin. Gazette.

verse, went out into Assyria and bricks or simply of earth. Of course May be have sore eyes, and a chest-the city to have been founded by As- be traced among the ruins. This con- May his boots leak, his gun bang others by Nimrod, who was a son of opening into large courts. The parti- May one thousand nightmares trot Cush, and "a mighty hunter before tion walls are made of sun-dried quarter-rapes over his stomach every

After this notice of the building of baster slabs. Inside, as well as out- May every day of his life be more until 2 Kings, 19: 86. Here we are How full of sad interest are these re- May his coffee be sweetened with flies, and his sauce seasoned with spiwhile worshipping an idel. In Isaiah things which we are apt to call "ex- May he be shed with lightning, and 37th, the account is exactly the same. ceeding great" in this world of ours- compelled to wander over gun-powder

if called on again. The sum total con- all that is in human power to do, and that their city should be destroyed in allow them to become our boast; for, ding-school misses practicing their first forty days, because of their wicked- after all, there is nothing that can lessons in music, without the privilege

May a troop of printer's devils, lean lank and hungry, dog his heels each day, and a regiment of cats caterwant under his window each night.

May his daughters marry one-eyed editors, and his sons wed female ty pe-A tall Eastern girl, named Short

THE Quincy and Palmyra Railroad was sold to-day to the Hannibal and St. Joseph Railroad for $250,000, and now forms a part of that road.

The officers, in conjunction with the managers of the Wabash Valley Railroad, united to bridge the Mississippe river at Quincy, the work to be commenced at once.

GOVERNOR Marvin was cleete United States Senator from Florids of the first ballot. The Judge, however of the admission of the Southern Sena tors and Representatives is settled.

daughter, saw for the first time, a waterfall scott -- II and many way.

"What do you call that great big stuffed bag, Mary?" St. Louis-11:

"That's a waterfall, Ma." "A waterfall. Looks more like a

"THE politicians have thrown me overboard," said a disappointed politician, "but I have strength enough to swim to the other side." WOMAN should remain as attack at man's side as the rib out of which she was made. "I've buried my best friend," as the undertaker said when he interred the sack doctor. In a symbologicano listage No maiden ever unlocked her heart to a lover, but a kiss was the prisoner to firout begannes and lagroot odi a A little girl in school being asked what a cataract or waterfall was, replied that it was heir flowing over

A GIRL was born in La Cros with two tongues. Won't her husban eatch it. If she lives to have one?

WHEN is the best time to read the Because, if he is expelled, perhaps book of nature? When autumn turns > toxicate -in the first place a man staggers himself, in the last he staggers his Liquor and flattery both will in-

PRENTICE says: "Gen. Butler curries on war as little boys sleep to keep warm-spoon fashion."

MISERY loves company, and so does marriageable young lady.

THE assessed property valuation of St. Joseph, Mo., is $6,005,510.

Public Square, Winchester,

every case Satisfaction Guaranteed; including JOHN RICHARDSON, specifics for the above diseases, with which the country is flooded. Apply to a Confidential and Skillful Physician, whose success in the past war-best style. PRICES REASONABLE.

CORRESPONDENCE.

In referring to the drum and the Hygienic Physiology has more special other fixtures for heating the Metho- reference, as used in this article, to the dist church, mentioned by us two physiology of man. weeks ago, your correspondent in last This is a science, the study of which, week's paper says the honor of this by a great many, has been much negpurchase is due mainly to the liberality lected, and considered irksome and deof "outsiders." "Honor to whom honor | void of interest.

having but few wealthy members, is We need entertain no fears that any yet as liberal as other societies; and one will gain too much knowledge on Prompt Attention Given to the Col-

Agent, and will pay particular attention to stroyed this season by placing it out

For the Journal. Literary.

prepared to do all grades of painting the word "folk" occurs, and on page education and customs of life. WARE. son should adopt the use or only one, physical and intellectual training. DISPENSARY mar teach that when the action reverts 211 West Maryland st., bet. Meridian to the agent, the compound personal pronoun is used; then if theyfall they will hurt themselves, and not "them," In Willson's Second Reader, page sults are still more apparent. standing of their affections. After a large, varied various departments of all concomitant Veneral man with a gun on his shoulders." cases that ever came under the shservation of > der instead of shoulders. without flagrant mistakes.

excusable for those that remain.

PAUL PRY. | sible.

ive power is only partially developed, It has now been published, hawked and a great portion is left to his intelto satisfy all claims until next contri- mand for him to understand physicbutton day, when we shall all have a logical laws, if he wishes to be in possession of a "sound mind in a sound body." About equal numbers of the actions and inclinations of men are instinctive, while the remainder is ences, more intelligent associations, and, in after years, evince a marked change, the one being intelligent and possessing, while the other is directly exist for several generations, the re-

From this we see that a perfect natural development, is almost solely dependent upon a proper knowledge of and a strict adherence to, the laws of HYGEA.

"Why are you so inquisitive?" Merely for assessing purposes. I am assessor of this ward, and only wanted to know what you rated your nag sentense, "You had better try to sleep." assassination of the lamented Lincoln, are entitled to the additional twice in Kidd's Ellocution, page 137. be forwarded to the United States, makes all, even sceptics, feel that there ment, and warns the people of the granted by the recent acts of Capacitate.

Nearly all editors commit the same under a proper guard, as soon as possible in the same under a proper guard, as soon as possible in the same under a proper guard, as soon as possible in the same under a proper guard, as soon as possible in the same under a proper guard, as soon as possible in the same under a proper guard. Nearly all editors commit the same under a proper guard, as soon as pos, is indeed a God; that there is none like South to beware of the President's

"An Exceeding Great City." BY JENNIE HARRISON

city." Ancient historians tell us that vation of Jesus Christ. it was nineteen miles long and eleven cumference. Now you will understand the expression "of three days" journey." A Jewish day's journey quire three such journeys to travel began to explore these hills or mounds; and sinse then many curious and interesting discoveries have been made has brought to light the remains of agree exactly with the accounts given of an arrow-head. Thus it is called It would look very strange to you; and a tiresome task to spend so much time in trying to interpret it. But how gratifying, as well as wonderful, it is to find on these old long-buried ruins JOHN H. SURRATT, implicated in the the same accounts of kings and wars of Virginia, laid before the Legislature and events that are so familiar to usip of that State on Monday, urges the The use of had instead of would occurs has been rearrested in Egypt, and will the books of the Old Testament. It adoption of the Constitutional amend-

Large winged bulls, libns with November 1, 1865..... $ 551310.00

tenth chapter of Genesis and eleventh may be seen at the Historical Society surplus revenue may be used in retir-

Gazette. polyntages 1 treet me water "Why, then, did you vote for him to

'Yes, Papa and Mamma and you all forgive me when I do wrong; God forives me too, and I must do the same. THE message of Governor Pierpoint

Him in all the earth, and that what party in the North.